STEAMSHIP ATLANTIC, OFF COVES, ENGLAND.—Steamship Atlantic Captain Charles Hoyer, 1000 tons, will be sold on board at New York on July 10, at 10 o'clock, at a meeting held this day. Horace Webster, L. D. President of the College of the city of New York, in the name of the Board of Governors, will preside. The Atlantic is the largest steamship ever built, and the constant kindness and courtesy they have personally experienced from the Commander; Mr. Arthur Hughes, Chief Engineer; Mr. McMillen, First Officer; Dr. Hedges, Physician. All officers are well known to your command, as well as from Mr. Remond, Stewart, and the untiring attention to every person connected with the ship. She is well equipped for business, pleasure, the fact elicited on our voyage, that no safer, sturdier, more reliable vessel ever sailed the ocean. We are anxious for real true comfort we believe that the steamship Atlantic will bear favorable comparison with any ship now steaming between Europe and America. We have full confidence we can recommend this noble specimen of American naval architecture to the patronage of all. We will do what we can to secure her for the service of the public travelling either for business or pleasure, the fact elicited on our voyage, that no safer, sturdier, more reliable vessel ever sailed the ocean.
